

A blazing spitfire guitarist with a six-string wall of sound who combines traditional and modern guitar influences with unique lyrics reflecting his views on everyday life. He's been addicted to the raw energy of the electric guitar since he formed his first band at age 13 in Port Hood, Cape Breton. In April 2011 Dan stepped out as a solo recording artist, earning an ECMA nomination for his debut CD, "Even My Guitar Is In Love With You".

The sophomore album, "From Deep Inside", was also nominated for both Music Nova Scotia, and ECMA awards for Blues Recording of the Year.

In October 2013 he won ECBS "Maritimes to Memphis Blues Challenge" and represented Atlantic Canada at the 2014 International Blues Challenge in Memphis.

His third album "Stand Back I Don't Know How Loud This Thing Gets", is nominated for a 2016 ECMA for Blues Album of the Year.
